Instructor

Center for Maritime Education, Paducah, KY

The instructor serves the brown water, Inland Waterways, and tug/barge industries from the Paducah Center for Maritime Education (CME). This full-time position works together with other SCI simulation experts and reports to the Assistant Director CME Paducah.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Serves as core maritime education team classroom and simulator instructor for all courses related to towboat captains, pilots, mate/steersman, and Subchapter M companies, including necessary US Coast Guard course approvals;
- Promotes Advance Pilothouse Management, Open Enrollment, and Towing Officer Assessment Program utilization.
- Promotes simulator assessments for towing company new hires, and promotional reasons;
- Assists with other CME programs and courses as a member of the leadership team, including occasional back-up instructor coverage at SCI's Houston CME facility;
- Strengthens SCI's relationships with towing companies, port authorities, and regional entities;
- Achieves expertise with SCI's Kongsberg simulator;
- Travels up to 4 weeks per year attending industry seminars, workshops, tradeshow, and customer visits.

Candidates must have a USCG license and 5+ years of applicable experience operating vessels on the Western Rivers, or inland waters, strong communication skills, experience training steersmen, solid computer skills, and the ability to travel to customer sites, conferences and SCI's Houston TX Center for Maritime Education.

Preferred candidate would have a USCG Master license with Towing Endorsement, 7+ years of applicable experience operating vessels on the Western Rivers.

USCG Designated Examiner (DE) credential preferred. The successful candidate will need to complete an IMO approved Train-the-Trainer program to obtain a USCG Certification to teach within 12 months.

The position offers a Mon-Fri shoreside work schedule, a competitive salary, generous paid leave and benefits including health, dental and matching 403(b) retirement savings plan.

Interested candidates should send a resume to HR@seamenschurch.org.
