

Position Description

Maritime Chaplain, Upper Mississippi Region

About the Organization

The Seamen's Church Institute (SCI) is North America's largest mariners' service agency with an annual operating budget exceeding $8 million. Founded in 1834, SCI provides pastoral care services, maritime education and training, and mariner advocacy for the workers who transport billions of tons of cargo each year across the world's oceans and along our nation's inland waterways.

Summary

The Maritime Chaplain for the Upper Mississippi Region provides direct pastoral care to US mariners and shore-side staff working the Upper Mississippi, Missouri, and Illinois rivers; develops and supports SCI's relationships with church and maritime-industry stakeholders. This full-time position is based in St. Louis, MO; works collaboratively with other SCI chaplains; and reports to SCI's Paducah, Kentucky-based Supervisory Chaplain for our Ministry on the Rivers and Gulf program.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Visit docked or underway commercial vessels to provide pastoral care, crisis response, averaging 3-4 days in the field per week.
- Provide Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) and Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) interventions as core tools for mariner pastoral care once trained in these skills
- Mentor chaplain interns, field education students, and river chaplain associates
- Strengthen ongoing ministry protocols with other SCI chaplains, including emergency on-call coverage, travel to accident/ fatality sites, and disaster planning with maritime officials
- Represent SCI at maritime industry events, including networking, dinner invocations, boat christenings, company captains' meetings, and presentations on SCI's ministry
- Liaise with SCI's Christmas at Sea program leader regarding mariner holiday gift packages
- Serve as resource to SCI's development team to expand SCI's presence in the river maritime community
- Conform with all safety and security protocols required by the US Coast Guard, transportation company policies, and SCI

Requirements

- Ordination in the Episcopal Church or other mainline denomination is desired. Clinical Pastoral Education, military, maritime, or hospital chaplaincy is helpful, as is work experience in the maritime industry
- The ability to frequently travel and work hours necessary to cover pastoral crises and other assignments, including occasional overnights and weekends
- Valid, clean driver's license
- Possession of a US Transportation Worker Identity Credential (TWIC) card, or the ability to obtain one
- The ability to embark or disembark boats in varied weather conditions and lift and carry packages up to 50lbs

SCI Chaplains are required to abide by the International Christian Maritime Association (ICMA) Code of Conduct

- Show an unconditional love to the mariner as a human being, created in the image of God, and a sincere respect for their personal values and beliefs
- Fight prejudice, intolerance, and injustice of any kind
- Respect the loyalty of those engaged in maritime ministry to their particular ecclesiastical discipline and tradition and refrain from proselytizing mariners
- Co-operate with persons, organizations, and institutions, Christian or non-Christian, which work for the welfare of mariners
